'Whisperseed'

Ying Cai (left) and Theo Turner Jr., members of the Shenandoah University Dance Ensemble, rehearse "Whisperseed" for the opening of the "Blossoms and Brushstrokes" show 6 to 9 p.m. today at the Shenandoah Arts Council building, 811 S. Loudoun St., Winchester. The dance was choreographed by Stacy Palett. The show combines fine art and commercial art, antique art, and new pieces, all united by the themes of springtime, orchards, and the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival. Several framed panels will incorporate postcards and photos of past festivals. The show organizer is Geraldine Kiefer, a professor of art at SU. The show continues through May 28. Call 667-5166 for more information or check the Web site at www.shenarts.org.

In Your Opinion

Do you send Christmas cards?

I used to but don't have time anymore

I never send them

I try to send them out every year
